Zimbabwe Standard \(Zimbabwe\) May 11, 2009.

As the government sponsored Kariba media stakeholders' conference, convened to draw up a roadmap for reforms in the sector, closed this weekend, officers from the Police Law and Order Section swooped on the offices of the Zimbabwe Independent seeking to arrest its Editor and News Editor. The officers, said they had been sent to arrest Vincent Kahiya and Constantine Chimakure, Editor and News Editor respectively, over a story published on Friday naming Central Intelligence Organisation officers and police officers who were allegedly involved in the abduction of human rights and MDC activists in November last year.
